One of the real "biggest" of dry goods, millinery, clothing, those and many other things that shoes and many other things that are usually sold in such a store as "The Fashion Shop," was the main event on Central avenue, between Second and Third streets, yester-day. It was the first day's sale of day. It was the first day's sale of the closing out of the entire stock of "The Fashion Shop," and there was a deluge of eager buyers at the store all day long. The buyers commenced forming in front of the store as early as 7:70 in the morning, although it was advertised that the store would not be open for business until 9:30 a. m., and the score of clerks were kept busy business until 1:20 a. m., and the score of clerks were kept busy selling and wrapping goods until the hour of closing the store for the day. Terry McGovern, referee of the Philadelphia Purchasing company, purchasers of the stock, stated that the sales of the first day exceeded his most sanguine expectations. Remember, the sale

In Witness Whereof, we have hereunto set our hands and seals this 25th day of January, 1922.

The first essential of the preservation of rugs is thorough cleanliness.

Unless all dirt is removed from them at frequent intervals, their nap will be rapidly worn away. This wear is caused by sharp gritty dirt which embeds itself in the depths of rugs and which actually cuts the soft nap forced down against it by walking or rocking. Only a beating can dislodge this buried grit and only The Hoover lifts rugs from the floor and gently beats out all destructive grit and so preserves the rugs from wear. In addition, this efficient cleaner electrically sweeps up stubbornest litter, freshens colors and straightens the nap that should not be allowed to remain crushed. Also it cleans by powerful air suction. Not only does The Hoover bear our guarantee to preserve the life and beauty of all floor coverings: also it is endorsed by leading authorities on rugs and carpets as well as by nearly a million users because it cleans
